G. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

Notice of meetings will be posted on the City of Tallahassee's calendar, available on the Ethics Board website at Talgov.com

H. CLOSED SESSIONS

1. Pursuant to section 112.324, Florida Statutes, any portion of a proceeding conducted by the Board under its authority as a local investigatory body, pursuant to a Complaint or preliminary investigation, is exempt from section 286.011, Florida Statutes; Section 24(b), Art. I of the State Constitution; and section 120.525, Florida Statutes.
2. Pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes, any portion of a proceeding of the Board in which a determination regarding a referral is discussed or acted upon is exempt from section 286.011, Florida Statutes; and Section 24(b), Art. I of the State Constitution and section 120.525, Florida Statutes.
3. The exemptions in paragraphs (1) - (2) above apply until:
  - a. The Complaint is dismissed as legally insufficient;
  - b. The Subject requests in writing that such records and proceedings be made public;
  - c. The Board determines that it will not investigate the referral; or
  - d. The Board, under its authority as a local investigatory body determines, based on such investigation, whether probable cause exists to believe that a violation has occurred.

I. EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS

When acting upon a Complaint, the Board is a quasi-judicial body entrusted by the Tallahassee Charter to investigate violations of and enforce the Ethics Code. No ex parte communications will be permitted on any matter materially related to a Complaint coming before the Board. An ex parte communication is defined as an oral or written contact with a Board member by a party or interested person regarding a matter materially related to a Complaint pending before the Board or a matter materially related to a Complaint that may be reasonably foreseen to come before the Board, without giving notice to other interested parties. If a Board member receives such a communication, the Board member will file the City's ex parte discussion form. For purposes of this subsection, discussions at any publicly noticed meeting or closed session will not constitute an ex parte communication.

ARTICLE VIII –VOTING

A. VOTING AND ABSTENTION

1. Each member shall be entitled to one (1) vote and shall cast that vote on each item submitted when they are present and not prohibited from voting.
2. Proxy votes and absentee ballots shall not be permitted.
3. Members shall only abstain from a vote when there is a valid conflict of interest pursuant to Florida law and the member complies with the disclosure procedure.
4. No Board member shall vote on any matter involving an alleged violation of the City's Ethics Code unless the member bases his or her determination on all facts, evidence, and testimony received by the Board in the matter.

5. Unless expressly provided otherwise in Board bylaws or administrative policies and procedures or required by law or ordinance, all decision requiring a vote of the Board shall be made by majority vote of the Board members present. A quorum must be present for any vote. A Board member who is present but precluded from voting for any reason shall not count toward a quorum.

B. RECUSAL AND DISQUALIFICATION IN QUASI-JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

1. In quasi-judicial hearings, members may be disqualified or recused for bias, prejudice or interest, by self-initiation or by motion timely filed. Members must disqualify or recuse themselves if they are family members or business associates of the subject of the Complainant or Respondent.
2. Motions to disqualify or recuse a Board member from a quasi-judicial hearing must be made by the movant and decided by the Board member prior to the commencement of the Complaint hearing or other vote or proceeding.
3. The standard for disqualification or recusal of a Board member is whether the motion is legally sufficient and whether the allegations create an impression that a Board member's impartiality might reasonably be questioned. A motion is legally sufficient if the facts alleged would prompt a reasonably prudent person to fear that he or she could not get a fair and impartial trial. A member, in deciding whether to disqualify or recuse himself or herself, must assume the truth of the facts alleged but the member is not bound by movant's conjecture or legal conclusions.

ARTICLE IX – HOTLINE CALLS AND COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

A. HOTLINE CALLS, E-MAILS, AND WRITTEN COMPLAINTS

1. The Ethics Officer will maintain a log of all calls received by the Ethics and Fraud Hotline and any Complaints received using the Board’s form. The Ethics Officer will provide this log at every regularly scheduled meeting.
2. The Ethics Officer, or his or her designee, will receive all Hotline calls and Complaints and examine any materials submitted therewith to assure completeness and that required documents are in good order.
3. All Hotline calls and Complaints within the jurisdiction of the Board, including, but not limited to, local corruption, fraud, waste, mismanagement, campaign finance, conflicts of interest, corruption, Ethics Code violations, and voting conflicts, shall be given a tracking number and reviewed by the Ethics Officer or referred as outlined below.

  - a. Employee conduct/misconduct will be reported to the employee’s supervisor, the appropriate appointed official, or Assistant City Manager and to Human Resources director. If the Hotline call contains allegations that the Board determines cannot be adequately investigated, for any reason, by the city staff referenced above, the Board may direct the Ethics Officer to investigate the Hotline call, to have an investigation conducted by a third party, or to otherwise pursue resolution on the call. The Ethics Officer shall report the status at the next Board meeting;

Reports to the Hotline are received pursuant to the Board's responsibilities under the Charter of the City of Tallahassee. Hotline reports are not submitted to the Board as sworn ethics complaints. Information contained in Hotline reports has not been verified by the Board, though some background information may have been gathered by the Board before making a decision to dismiss and refer to the appropriate enforcement authority or to initiate a complaint. Any copy of a hotline report or of information contained therein will be redacted in accordance with Florida's public records laws before being released or published.
8. If a hotline report contains allegations about an individual within the Board's jurisdiction over alleged violations of the City's ethics code, all information received and/or gathered in relation to said allegations shall remain confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1), F.S., and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution pursuant to s. 112.324, F.S., and Sec. 2-22, Tallahassee Code of General Ordinances. Any and all information pertaining to said allegations shall be excluded from the hotline log presented at public meetings of the Board until the allegation is no longer confidential and exempt as provided under Sec. 2-22, Tallahassee Code of General Ordinances.

9. If a member of the Board requests to initiate a complaint pursuant to this Board's Administrative Rule 1.03, the Board shall provide a copy of the report or complaint, as well as all other required information, pursuant to and consistent with those applicable administrative procedures adopted by this Board.
10. Neither term includes sworn complaints on matters within the Board's ethics jurisdiction.

ARTICLE X – ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING PROCEDURES

Pursuant to Section 61, Tallahassee Charter, the Board shall adopt separate due process policies and procedures for the administration of the Ethics Board and the processing, prosecution, and adjudication of ethics complaints.

ARTICLE XI - AMENDING, WAIVING, OR SUSPENDING BOARD BYLAWS

- A. These bylaws may be amended by a majority of the Board. An amendment may be proposed at any meeting of the Board. A proposed amendment shall not be acted upon until the following meeting unless the amendment was included in the notice for the meeting, time for public comment is allowed, and the amendment is approved by a 2/3 vote of the members present. Not less than five (5) days prior to the meeting at which the amendment is to be voted upon, members shall be sent a copy of such proposed change.
- B. A rule of procedure or bylaw may be suspended or waived at any meeting by two-thirds (2/3) vote of Board members present, unless such rule is established by statute or applicable code.
